DESCRIPTION

The Adonis Niche has a prominent appearance defined by bold lines. The robust molded base forms the foundation for two fluted pilasters. An arch softens the design and gives it a touch of elegance. Those in search of a wall niche with classical character can find favor with the Adonis Niche. It is traditionally beautiful and durably made.

The Adonis Niche is molded with crisp detail and dramatic depth in high-density polyurethane foam, one of our most popular, durable and versatile materials. It offers a unique and traditional means to decorative displays. It recesses into the surface of the wall and installs easily without the weight of stone or wood.
